

Seminar Invitation

Enjoy a full course of medicine and cardiology

Enjoy an evening with Dr Matt Reeves and Dr Richard Woolley

Vets are invited to an evening with Small Animal Medicine Specialist Dr Matthew Reeves and Veterinary Cardiology Specialist Dr Richard Woolley. Matt and Richard will discuss a combined cardiology and internal medicine approach to diagnosis and treatment of cases you will see in your own practice.

Matt and Richard will provide tips and techniques you can use on your own cases to decide whether a medical or cardiology workup should be pursued. Matt and Richard will take you through scenarios illustrating where each discipline can add value and how to reach a definitive diagnosis.

Please feel free to share an appetizer with Matt and Richard prior to the seminar then sit back and enjoy an entertaining and informative evening. Spaces are limited so please RSVP early.
